

Program & List of Speakers

(Subject to amendment: see ANZMapS website for program updates)

Tuesday 6 April, Treasures Wall, State Library of South Australia

5.00-6.00pm Informal welcome drinks
Conference Registration available

Wednesday 7 April, Hetzel Lecture Theatre

8.00-9.00am Conference Registration, Treasures Wall, State Library of South Australia

9.00am Welcome to Country and Welcome to the State Library
Alan Smith: Director, State Library of South Australia

9.15am The Hon Dr John Bannon, AO: Keynote Address: (Public Session)
Highly Favoured by Nature? Mirageous South Australia

Dr Peter Hayman: Principal Scientist-Climate Applications. Waite Research Precinct
What Can We Learn from Goyder's Line of Reliable Rainfall in a Changing Climate?

11.00-11.20am Morning tea

Dr Martin Woods: Curator of Maps, National Library of Australia
The National cartographic collection as a resource for climate analysis.

Mac Benoy: Australasian Meterological Association
The Todd Weather-map Digitisation Project

12.30-1.30pm Lunch

1.30-3.30pm Assoc Prof David Bruce, Paul Corcoran, and Daniel Cooper: University of South Australia.
The History and Reinstatement of Goyder's line in South Australia

Kelly Henderson: Colonel Light's Environmental Features for Adelaide

Dr Janis Sheldrick: 1855-1865: Goyder's long ride to Mapping reliable rainfall.

3.00-3.30pm Afternoon tea

3.30- 5.00pm Matt Miles: Department of Environment and Heritage
GIS for Climate Change: Maps and More

Graham de Hoedt: Climate Information Services, Bureau of Meteorology
Climate variability and temperature changes across Australia over the last 100 years

Maggie Patton: Map Librarian, Mitchell Library Sydney
Primary Evidence –rare surveys of Eastern Australia from the Sir William Dixon Collection

Conference Dinner, Wednesday 7 April
7.00pm, House of Chow, 82 Hutt Street Adelaide

Thursday 8 April, Hetzel Lecture Theatre

- 9.00-9.15am Welcome: Martin Woods, ANZMapS President
- 9.15am Dr Rob Allan: Keynote Speaker (Public Session) ACRE Project Manager, Climate Monitoring and Attribution Group, UK Meteorological Office, Hadley Centre
The International ACRE initiative: Visualisations of Historical Weather Reconstructions
- 10.15-10.45am Morning Tea
- 10.45-12.15pm Dr Carl Menges: General Manager, Apogee Imaging International SAR for emergency mapping in Australia
- Bill Syme: BMT WBM Pty Ltd. Integrated Flood Modelling and Mapping using GIS
- Greg Scott: Geospatial and Earth Monitoring Division, Geoscience Australia
Climate Change Adaptation: New Spatial Challenges
- 12.15-1.00pm Lunch
- 1.00-1.45pm Adelaide Town Hall Visit
- 2.00-3.45pm Dr Alan Forghani: Murray-Darling Basin Authority (MDBA)
Application of Spatial Information Technologies to Support the Sustainable management of Water, Land and Other Environmental Resources across the Basin
- Frank Urban: Australia's Enigmatic Inland Sea- Past and Present
- Greg Wood: Uncertain Sources: Rainfall rivers and national capital site selection

Formal Conference Close

- 3.45-4.00pm Afternoon Tea
- 4pm ANZMapS Annual General Meeting
- Evening No Commitments

Friday 9 April

"Field Visits" to cartographic collections

- 9.10-10.00am State Library of South Australia
- 10.00-11.00am Royal Geographical Society of South Australia
- 11.00-11.20am Morning Tea
- 11.30-12.30pm South Australia State Records Office

Closed Session (meeting of professional map managers, curators and librarians)

- 1.30-4.30pm National & State Libraries Association Workshop
Mastering Maps: Survival tactics for managing map collections

